THERE is a proposal, we hear, to utilise Victoria College, during the summer vacation, as the Supreme Court, in order that the present Hall of Justice may undergo an overhaul. We fear, however, that the proposal is not a feasible one. After having been housed so long in her stuffy, dingy and disreputable-looking aboda in Queen's Road, Justice would feel too much the change to the splendours of Victoria College BEFORE Mr Hastings at the Magistracy to-day, Lam Ching, shopkeeper, was Acting-Inspector Kemp stated that at 11,20 a.m. on 20th inst., he found the karosene stored on the landing stage at the steam launch wharf. It was covered with some old ganny ba s, and was not marked 'dangarous.' No owner could be found and the kerosene was taken to the Central Police Station. Shortly afterwards the kerosane was claimed by the defendant, who stated to the Magistrate that he hought the kerosene from the Choung Chung shop, but was supplied with it from a boat. He had to leave the landing stage while he went to get a boat to take it on board a junk. Fined $25 kerosene forfeitod.

Once more in their element the Stanley

Company gave an excellent variety entertainment last night. Miss Nelly de Lorme sang 'Come back to Erin' very sweether and was followed by Miss Ada Maitland in the pretty ballad Barney, take me Home. Later in the evening these young ladies sang the patriotic dust 'England and Ireland's Own; which fell a bit fist, probably on account of the audience failing to find in the fraternal sentiment of the duet a reflex of the true relations between Ireland and Britain at the present moment. In an English music hall, it was just the sort of duet to elicit the hunky huzzur of the people. Miss Fanny Stanley, who appears to know how to dress to the best adventage, was as charming as ever in her serio-comic gems. She would be a valuable member of any travelling company, and as becomes a conscientions artiste she enares no pains to make her turn a success. Of course, Miss Cissie Denver is the star. By request, she sang Tostia Good Bye in a manner which displayed all the carefulness of vocalization for which she is now known, and as a concession to popular demands she gave Twas within a mile o' Etinboro' toon, and Comin thro' the rye. Her pronunciation el Scotch is not quite faultiess, but the sough wore so well rendered that this might readily be overlooked. Regret was expressed at the absence of Mr Stanloy through indisposition, and his place was taken for the nonce by Mr Phillips, who cracked jokes right merrily with Messrs Duriah and Nolan, the two corner men. Dancing has always been a strong We understand that a private telegram point with the Stanleys, and the dancers has been received by a local firm to the secured a fair share of last night's triumphs. Miss Tilly Lake is a really smart danseuse, and was deservedly applauded for her skirt dance with Miss Florrie Stephenson, Miss Stephenson slag danced an American sand-jig, and Miss Mildred Trigge appeared in a famoy step and French dauce. Mr Durish's nigger sketches were better than anything he has yet done here. They were all full of side-splitting situations and rollicking fun. A London telegram to the San Francisco Chronicle says :- The English people have not yet reached those heights of virtuoso worship which have been attained in Germany by the admirers of Liezt, who, on one occasion, had to wade ankle deep through roses to reach his piano, but they are not far behind, if one may judge the unseemly conduct of Paderowski's audience at St. James Hall to-day. Any. thing more ridiculous can hardly be imagined. On returning to bow acknowledgments, Paderewski found himcelf the center of a mob of delirious women, who pelted him with flowers and nearly tore off his cost in an effort to grab him by the hand. One young lady fairly hurled herself headlong on the platform. The ovation finally resolved itself into a howling pandemonium, from which the poor artist was recovered by friends.

THE San Francisco Chronicle says :- If the people of California venture to express any disapproval of Chinese immigration to the United States they are called cruel and unchristian by the sentimentalists of the East, who know no more about the Chinese than they do about the races that lived before the flood. What have these critics of California to say about the way foreigners are treated in China? Is the murder of missionaries and the looting and burning of chapels and churches an argument to their minds in favor of the repeal of the Chinese exclusion act I Do they hope to Christianize these men, whose hands are rad with the blood of the missionaries sent to China to convert them? It would seem sometimes as though the best thing that could happen would be for China to return to her former policy of non-intercourse with foreign nations, and to wook out her deating on hor own lines. The evangelization of China is an iridescent dream, judging from results, and commercially, socially and politically she is of little use or interest to the civilized world.

In the present century there was a famous scholar called Macaulay. His father, mother and brothers were wise and did his business very earnestly. His heart was very z-alous against slavery but failed to teach his brothers. He shared a large part in the Reform Bill and debated with many of his equils. When he went to India he said that he had dev ured Greeks Latin and English Essays. In History he knew much than any other people. When he was young he had gained a medal by the examination of Latin declamation. He often said that he desired to put himself in the great library. He is now famous on account of his history which he wrote.

The Montgomery peerage is extinct, but members of that family still reside on their original land, and still bury their dead in the old cometery of Ardo. This was the first Scottish settlement in Ulster that succreded, though it was not the first attempt. Thirty years before this date, a settlement on the northern shore of Beliast Lough had been swept away by the O'Neills, and some plantations made by Essex shared the same fate. THE CHINA REVIEW.

PUBLISHED BI-MONTHLY.

THIS Review, which was intended to most L the wants of many students of Chinese caused by the discontinuance of Notes and Queries on China and Japan, has reached its Twentieth Volume. The Review discusses those topics which are uppermost in the minds of students of the 'Far East' and about which every intelligent person connected with China or Japan is desirous of acquiring trustworthy information. It includes many interesting Notes and original Papers on the Arts, Sciences, Ethnology, Folklore, Geography, History, Literature, Mythology, Natural History, Antiquities, and Social Manners and Customs, etc., etc., of China, Japan, Mongolia, Tibet, and the Far East generally. Recently a new de-parture has been taken, and the Review now gives papers on Trade, Commerce, and Descriptive notes of Travel by well-known writers. It was thought that by extending the scope of the Review in this direction, the Magazine would be made more generally

The Review department receives special attention, and endeavours are made to present a careful and concise record of Literature on China etc., and to give critiques embodying skatches of the Most recent works on such topics. Authors and Publishers are requested to forward works to 'Editor, China Review, care of China

Mail Office. The Notes and Queries are still continued and form an important means of obtaining from and diffusing among students knowledge on obscure points.

The Correspondents' column also affords farther and greater facilities for the interchange of views and discussion of various Original contributions in Chinese, Latin, or any of the Modern Languages are received. The papers are contributed by the members of the various Consular, the Imporial Customs, and Hongkong Services, and also by the Missionary bodies amongst whom a high degree of Chinese scholarship is assiduously cultivated. Amongst the regular contributors are Drs. Chalmers, Eitel, Bretschneider, and Hirth, Professor Legge, and Messrs Balfour, Watters, Stent, Phillips, MacIntyre, Groot, Jamieson, Faber, Kopsch, Parker, Physicir, Giles, Piton, and Taylor,—all well-known names, indicative of sound scholarship and thorough mastery of their subject.

The Subscription is fixed at $6.50 per annum, postage included - payable in advance. Orders for binding volumes will be promptly attended to; Address, 'Manager, China Mail Office.'

of interest to sojourners in the Far East and the present issue will hold favourable if not advantageous comparison, with preceding numbers. - Celestial Empire. 'This number contains several articles of interest and value.'-North-China Herald The China Review for September-October fully maintains the high standard of excellence which characterises that publication, and altogether forms a very interesting and readable number. Meteorologists will find an interesting and valuable contribution by Dr. Fritsche, on "the Amount of Precipitation (Rainand Snow) of Peking," showing the results of observations made at the Imperial Russian Observatory at Paking, from 1841 to 1880. " Notes on the Dutch Occupation of Formosa," by Mr. Geo. Phillips, contains some interesting information, although much of it is second-hand. The Notices of New Books include a most generous and appreciative review of "The Divine Classic of Nan-Hua," and the Notes and Queries are as usual very interesting. - North-China

Daily News. 'A substantial and reliable Review which all students of Chins and the Chinese would do well to patronise.'-Chrysanthemum. The November-December number of the China Review contains less variety than usual, but the few articles are very interesting. The opening paper by Mr Herbert A. Giles on "The New Testament in Chinese" treats of a question that must necessarily be of great importance in the eyes of all missionaries. . . Mr E. H. Parker's "Short Journeys in Szechuen" are continued; and a goodly instalment of these travels in the interior of China is given. Mr. F. H. Balfour contributes a paper of some length entitled "The Emperor Cheng, founder of the Chinese Emwhich will be read with genuine interest by students of Chinese history. A few short notices of New Books and a number of Notes and Queries, one of which "On Chinese Oaths in Western Eorneo and Java" might appropriately have been placed under a separate heading, complete the number. -H.K. Daily Press.

Tyubner's Oriental Record contains the following notice of the China Review:-

The present publication, judging by the number now before us, is intended to occupy a position, as regards China and the neighbouring countries, some what similar to that which has been filled in India by the Calcutta Review. The great degree of attention that has been bestowed of late years upon the investigation of Chinese literature. antiquities, and social developments, to say nothing of linguistic studies, has led to the accumulation of important stores of information, rendering some such channel of publicity as is now provided extremely desirable : and contributions of much interest may fairly be looked or from the members of the foreign consular services, the Chinese Customs' corps, and the missionary body, among whom a high degree of Chinese scholarship is now assiduously cultivated. and who are severally represented in the first number of the Review by papers highly creditable to their respective authors . Some translations from Chinese novels and plays are marked by both accuracy and freshness of style; and an account of the career of the Chinese post-statesman of the eleventh century, Su Tung-p'o, by Mr. E. C. Bowes, is not only historically valuable, but is also distinguished by its literary grace. Beside notices of new books relating to China and the East, which will be a useful feature of the Review, if carried out with punctuality and detail, we are glad to notice the "Notes and Queries are destined to find a place in its pages also. It is to be hoped that this opening for contributions on Chinese subjects may evoke a similar degree of literary real to that which was displayed during the lifetime of its prede consor in the field, and that the China Review may receive the support necessary to besure ita continuance
